THE OFFICIAL

RODEO CAPITAL

MUTTON BUSTERS TO OLD HANDS, MESQUITE IS WHERE EVERYONE COMES TO WATCH THE COWBOYS RIDE.

Experiencing the Mesquite Rodeo is celebrating an authentic Texas lifestyle that is known the world over. We're no newcomers to showing visitors all that Texas has to offer, in fact, we've been ropin' and ridin' in Mesquite since 1946. There were rodeos all across the Southwest at the time, but the Mesquite Rodeo was unique because it was one of the first rodeos with a permanent location, and we carry on that proud tradition to this day. Mesquite was officially declared "Rodeo Capital of Texas," by the Texas legislature, and families come from miles around to enjoy the festivities.

The Mesquite Championship Rodeo is held every Saturday from June through August, so there are plenty of chances to come rope in on the fun! There's nothing like the rush of witnessing the skill on display when the competitors show their stuff bronc riding, bull riding, barrel racing, team roping, and more. In Mesquite, the rodeo is a family affair, with experiences all ages will relish for years—it truly has something for everyone. Come and discover why this charming town is a hidden gem in the Lone Star State!

WIDE OPEN SPACES

WHEN THE RODEO DUST SETTLES, MESQUITE OFFERS PLENTY OF PURSUITS FOR SPORTS ENTHUSIASTS AND OUTDOOR LOVERS TO ENJOY.

City Lake Aquatic Center

Make a splash with the family on those warm summer days at the City Lake Aquatic Center. Cool off in the pool while the kids have a blast cruising down the water slide. It's perfect for events, if you want to bring a bigger crowd for a celebration.

Mesquite Heritage Trail

A perfect getaway for runners, walkers, and cyclists, the Mesquite Heritage Trail boasts miles of concrete trails and sidewalks, with three unique trailheads, an exercise station, and a pedestrian bridge. A part of the larger Mesquite Hike and Bike trail system, this trail connects residents to the Mesquite Golf Club, sports fields, recreation centers, and more.

Mesquite Golf Club

The Mesquite Golf Club dates all the way back to the 1960s, but recent upgrades and renovations make this public course an exciting destination for golfers of all skill levels. The 18-hole course offers a snack bar, a pro shop with public Wi-Fi, and 6,980 yards of play surface. It's been named a Course of the Year by the Texas Turfgrass Association.

Samuell Farm

Almost 100 years ago, a surgeon named Dr. William Samuell donated 820 acres of land. The only stipulation was that the land must never be sold and that it would be open to public use at all times. Samuell Farm remains true to that wish all these years later, providing a place for visitors and residents to get out in nature. Fields, pastures, and winding paths unfold with picnic areas, playgrounds, and lakes. Wildlife lovers will find much to enjoy as well, from birdwatching to fishing.

Westlake Sports Center

Anyone who enjoys staying active will have a great time at the Westlake Sports Center. For the die-hard tennis fans, there are six lighted tennis courts, and three covered courts, so you can get your topspin going no matter the weather. For the pickleball crowd, there are four designated pickleball courts. For those who'd rather pull a bow than bat a ball, the center has an eight-lane archer shooting range with distances from 10 to 100 yards. For the skaters, don't miss dropping in on the skatepark.

CELEBRATION STATION

Excitement is the number one ingredient on the menu at Celebration Station, where kids can ride go-karts, spend hours at the arcade, play a round of mini-golf, and much more.

Skate Escape

Mesquite has two stellar options for those who prefer life on four wheels. Broadway Skateland is a Mesquite classic—family owned and operated since 1961—and they offer a variety of packages for groups of any size. For a slightly more grown-up skate, head over to Aloha Roller Palace, where they offer BYOB options to get the party rolling.

XCape Adventures

When you want a one-of-a-kind, choose-your-own-adventure kind of experience, look no further than Xcape Adventures. With three different escape rooms to choose from, and new ones rotating in all the time, your crew will stay entertained.

OPAL LAWRENCE & FLORENCE RANCH HOMESTEAD

Take a journey through time and see what Mesquite was like back before the turn of the 20th Century. The whole family can tour these historic spots to see what farming was like back in the olden days in Texas. Tour these historic houses to see how the Texans who came before us lived.

Kid's Empire

For the ultimate playground experience, you've got to bring the family to Kid's Empire. They say it's where kids "play big," and with their indoor playgrounds anchored by an interactive, dynamic maze, your little ones will be living large.

Urban Air

Does your kid want to feel like a superhero? Or a martial artist? Or an Olympic gymnast? They can do it all at Urban Air. At this awesome facility kids can jump, soar, race, and climb. The best part is—the whole experience is for all ages, so everyone can get in on the fun.

Take your family on a journey through historic, turn of the century Mesquite and be inspired by a story as big as Texas itself.

CREATE & DISCOVER IN MESQUITE

Mesquite Arts Theatre

From humble beginnings back in 1983, the Mesquite Arts Theatre has provided entertainment to Mesquite and the local area for more than 40 years now. Come watch a favorite play, or get your mind expanded by an interesting new one. There's always something great on stage.

Mesquite Community Band

A volunteer band, this group is made up of musicians who play band instruments from high school to retirement age. Any resident of North Texas or the DFW area can join and become a part of this fun group that plays in community parades, celebrations, and festivals.

THINGS TO DO

DOWNTOWN MESQUITE FARMERS MARKET

Every Saturday morning from April through November you'll see one of the greatest spreads of goods North Texas has to offer. Artisanal products, local produce, delicious baked goods, candles, soaps, bath products, and more are on full display. Food vendors offer up BBQ, snowcones, lemonade, and more. After you shop and sip, relax in the lovely sounds from local musicians. There's nothing like starting the weekend with a great gathering of food and art from local producers.

Downtown Public Art

Beautifying a public area is something we can all get behind, but it's even more fun when the artists are members of the community. Eight local artists took all their experiences and skills and created public pieces of art that the entire community can now enjoy. It's a stunning reminder that there's beauty everywhere in the world, and that there are all different kinds of ways to see that beauty. Now you can get the perfect selfie to commemorate your visit to Downtown Mesquite.

Culinary Community Kitchen

When we think about art, it's important not to forget the tastiest of all—culinary arts. At the Culinary Community Kitchen, classes and events abound for visitors to learn how to make their own tasty creations by learning from local professional chefs. The community garden means these meals can contain ingredients budding chefs grew themselves. For those a little further along in their culinary journey, there are consulting services with information about permitting for getting local businesses off the ground. There is also a commissary kitchen so folks can cook for their businesses without the expense of a kitchen of their own. The Culinary Community Kitchen is a place of discovery, learning, innovation, and passion, and it couldn't taste any better.

This spot has been a family business since 1959. As the oldest restaurant in Mesquite, you know you're getting BBQ by folks who know what they're doing. The man who started the joint invented the Oylor Rotisserie Smoker pit, which is used all across the world today, so this spot has a huge place in history.

SLAB'S BBQ
